

Home School Declaration
For COCC - OSU
Degree Partnership Program
2022-2023

This form is to be used to declare COCC as your financial aid home school. Once you submit this form, COCC will communicate your home school declaration to the Financial Aid Office at OSU and your financial aid home school will be COCC. Your federal and state financial aid, including the Oregon Promise Grant, will be administered by COCC Financial Aid Office only.

OSU ID number

Steps and guidelines to declare COCC as your home school:

- 1. You must be admitted to the DPP-OSU program.
2. Your financial aid file must be complete at your home school before any aid can be disbursed at COCC.
3. You must be enrolled in a minimum of six (6) credits at COCC each term to declare COCC has your Home Institution and for financial aid to disburse through COCC.
4. It is your responsibility to pay your balance at OSU at their appropriate tuition due deadlines.
5. If you are combining your enrollment:
- COCC cannot count OSU 300 or 400 level courses toward the enrollment status for any financial aid.
- COCC cannot count OSU 100 and 200 level courses toward the enrollment needed to disburse the Oregon Promise Grant or COCC Foundation Scholarship.
- COCC will count OSU 100 and 200 level courses only toward the enrollment needed to disburse financial aid awards such as the Federal Pell Grant, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, Oregon Opportunity Grant, Federal Work-Study, and Federal Direct loans.

Oregon Promise and COCC Foundation Scholarship: Only COCC enrollment is considered for Oregon Promise and COCC Foundation Scholarship. Please review the chart below for details on how these grants are paid based on your COCC enrollment.

Table with 4 columns: COCC enrollment status and term disbursement percentage, Half-time (6-8 credits), Three-quarter time (9-11 credits), Full-time (12+ credits). Rows include Oregon Promise Grant and COCC Foundation Scholarship.

Yes, I am choosing COCC as my home school for financial aid purposes. Select ALL terms that COCC will be your home school. Terms left blank will be considered OSU as the home school and aid at COCC will be cancelled.

Effective Term: Summer 2022, Fall 2022, Winter 2023, Spring 2023
