Introduction

Central Oregon Community College, the oldest two-year college in Oregon, provides comprehensive college services to the residents of its 10,000-square-mile district.

COCC offers two-year associate degrees, transfer/lower-division programs, career and technical education degrees and certificates, developmental courses, continuing education classes, industry-specific training programs and business management assistance.

Located in the geographic center of Oregon, the College's main campus is located in Bend, a city known for its natural beauty and its proximity to diverse recreational opportunities. The 201-acre campus offers spectacular views. Among the 26 buildings on the campus is the 80,000-square-foot Wickiup Hall, a residence hall, which opened in Fall 2015. This facility provides a modern, state-of-the-art living opportunity for students from Central Oregon, elsewhere in the state and from throughout the country.

The Redmond Campus, located 20 miles north on 25 acres near the Redmond Municipal Airport, offers all of the courses necessary to earn the Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer (AAOT) degree, along with technical certificates and degrees in Manufacturing Technology and Veterinary Technician. Coursework is also available in Automotive Technology. In addition, COCC has campuses in Madras and Prineville where students have access to a variety of credit and non-credit courses and student services.

Board Members

A seven-member board of directors governs the College, with members of that board elected from geographic zones in its 10,000-square-mile district.

COCC President

Dr. Shirley I. Metcalf

Dr. Shirley I. Metcalf

Dr. Shirley I. Metcalf is the fifth president in Central Oregon Community College's nearly 70-year history.

Dr. Metcalf has been at COCC since 2011 serving in several capacities, including dean of extended learning, interim vice president for instruction and interim president. She was hired into the permanent role of president in March 2015 and has announced her plan to retire in 2019.

Prior to coming to COCC, she held the positions of executive vice president for instruction and vice president for advancement at Lake Washington Technical College. At Hawaii Community College she served as dean of instruction (chief academic officer) and dean of outreach. Metcalf attained the rank of full professor in business and held a tenured position with the University of Hawaii System for 26 years.

Dr. Metcalf earned her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Hawaii and her doctorate in education from Northern Illinois University.

In 2014, Dr. Metcalf was named one of the University of Hawaii Community College's "50 Finest" for her contributions to community college education in Hawaii.

COCC History

- 1949 COCC opens with four part-time faculty members conducting classes for 109 students during the evenings in the basement of Bend High School.
- 1954 On the fifth anniversary, the students recommend changing the name to Central Oregon College.
- 1955 College Foundation is formed.
- 1957 Dr. Don Pence is appointed the College's first president.
- 1962 Central Oregonians approve the 10,000-square-mile College District and later elect the first District board. R.L. and Joyce Coats donate 140 acres on the west side of Awbrey Butte for the new campus.
- 1964 Nearly 700 students and 35 full-time faculty members begin classes at the new campus.
- 1966 COCC is accredited and a new 16,000-square-foot library opens.
- 1967 After Dr. Pence resigns, Dr. Frederick Boyle is named president. The college becomes Central Oregon Community College.
- 1971 Ponderosa Hall, a vocational-technical center, and Mazama Gymnasium open.
- 1982 The Pinckney Center for the Arts, named for instructor and administrator Orde Pinckney, is formally dedicated.
- 1984 The Small Business Development Center opens.
- 1990 The Central Oregon Consortium for Higher Education (COCHE) begins offering selected four-year degrees through Oregon colleges and universities on the COCC campus.

Facilities

The 201-acre main campus in Bend includes 26 buildings, incorporating 671,743 square feet. Most of the land that makes up the Bend campus was donated to the College in the early 1960s, primarily from Robert L. and Joyce Coats. The five original buildings which opened with the campus in 1964 were Des Chutes, Jefferson, Modoc, Ochoco and Grandview Halls—all on what is now known as the “upper campus.” Four more buildings in the same area were added within the next three years. The first buildings constructed along College Way, Mazama Gymnasium and Ponderosa, opened in 1971.

The Redmond Campus (see page 20), opened in 1997 and now has four buildings, including the Manufacturing and Applied Technology Center and the Redmond Technology Education Center. Madras and Prineville Campuses opened in 2011.

Most College facilities are available for rent. Go to cocc.edu and search “event space.”

New Building Construction

During the last 10 years, COCC has added the following facilities on the Bend Campus: Coats Campus Center, Jungers Culinary Center, Health Careers Center, Science Center and Wickiup Hall.

Buildings in Madras and Prineville were completed in Fall 2011, providing residents access to services and classes.

The Redmond Technology Education Center opened on the COCC Redmond Campus in Fall 2014.

Computer Labs

Computer Labs are available to students and district residents.

- 14 PC station lab and 1 MAC station in the Boyle Education Center
- 22 PC station lab and 1 MAC station in Pioneer Hall (student use only)
- 5 PC station lab at the Redmond Campus, Building 3
- 18 PC station lab, 1 MAC station at the Redmond Technology Education Center
- 28 PC station drop-in lab/computer classroom at the Madras Campus
- 28 PC station drop-in lab/computer classroom at the Prineville Campus

For more information and hours of operation, call 541.383.7716

Student Housing

COCC's Wickiup Hall opened in Fall 2015 and can house up to 320 COCC students. On-campus housing is operated and managed through COCC's Housing and Residence Life office. Rates vary; the 2018–19 room and board package for double-occupancy with standard meal plan is $11,151.

During the summer, the residence hall is available for groups and conferences. Call 541.383.7545 for more information.

Wickiup Hall

Barber Library

The 72,500-square-foot Robert L. Barber Library is named for a former COCC president (1990–2004). It features wireless internet access, public-access workstations and two computer classrooms. Students may check out laptops, iPads, digital cameras and other technology. There are other services available in the Barber Library such as Tutoring & Testing. Info: 541.383.7560 or cocc.edu/library

Barber Library features:

- Hundreds of thousands of full text research articles from scholarly electronic resources and databases—accessible via remote login 24/7 to all enrolled students
- Access to more than 27 million items, including e-books via the Orbis Cascades Alliance, a consortium of 38 Northwest academic libraries
- Electronic document delivery available for items not held at COCC or Alliance
- DVD and streaming video collections
- Group study rooms
- Children’s Literature & Equity Resource Center (CLERC)
- In-house gallery featuring local and juried art exhibits
- Credit library courses and research support
- Chat reference and research services

Redmond Campus

A full range of educational opportunities are available at the COCC Redmond Campus, located west of the Redmond Airport:

- Credit classes leading to the AAOT transfer degree
- Manufacturing (welding, machining, quality control) degrees and certificates
- Veterinary Technician degree
- Hybrid Automotive for industry professionals
- Foundational courses leading to health and science degrees

Redmond Campus, continued

- Academic advising, placement testing and financial aid assistance
- Multicultural clubs and activities
- Small business advising
- GED, Basic Skills and English Language Learning
- Self-enrichment and brewing classes

The Manufacturing and Applied Technology Center (MATC)

The MATC offers multi-industry and apprenticeship training. Students learn technical skills in both classroom and self-paced environments. Faculty with extensive experience in welding, machining and quality control work one-on-one with students in the program. The MATC specializes in skill development for individuals seeking employment in manufacturing.

The Redmond Technology Education Center (RTEC)

The 34,000-square-foot, two-story Center opened Fall 2014. The RTEC houses the Hybrid Automotive program. The Small Business Development Center (SBDC) also serves Redmond businesses from this location. RTEC has nine classrooms, three computer labs, four skill labs and several conference rooms. A 104-person meeting room is also available for community and event rental.

For information about the Redmond Campus, call 541.504.2900.

Madras Campus

The Madras Campus is a 10,000-square-foot facility that includes classrooms, a computer lab, a large community room and offices for faculty and administration. The campus is built on land donated to COCC by the Bean Foundation. Funding for the facility came primarily from the successful 2009 COCC bond measure, with additional money coming from Jefferson County and a U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) grant. COCC offers a variety of credit and noncredit classes and comprehensive student services that include:

- Credit classes leading to an AAOT degree
- Foundational credit classes for most degrees and certificates
- Academic advising, placement testing, proctored exams, tutoring and financial aid information
- Small business advising
- Customized business training
- GED, Basic Skills and English Language Learning
- Dual credit — earn high school and college credits
- Self-enrichment classes

Prineville Campus

The COCC Crook County Open Campus in Prineville was built as a collaborative partnership between Crook County, COCC and OSU Open Campus-Crook County. This 12,000-square-foot facility includes seven flexible meeting rooms and classrooms and offers 72 computer stations with high-speed internet access in the building and mobile computer lab. The campus was funded by a grant awarded to Crook County by the U.S. Department of Commerce Broadband Technology Opportunity Program, proceeds from the voter-approved 2009 COCC bond measure and support from local contributions and other nonprofit organizations. The campus sits on land donated by Crook County. COCC offers classes leading to the AAOT degree, credit classes, GED preparation classes, small business advising, workforce training and community learning opportunities at the Prineville Campus.

Deer Ridge Correctional Institution

Central Oregon Community College provides educational services to inmates through a contract with the Oregon Department of Corrections. COCC provides Adult Basic Education classes and GED test preparation and also offers a college credit program in welding. 70 students from Deer Ridge earned their GEDs in 2017–18 and another 10 students were enrolled in the welding program.

Programs of Study

COCC offers certificates of completion and four associate degrees: Associate of Applied Science, Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer, Associate of Science and Associate of General Studies.

(Details available on pages 28-31)

Certificates of completion prepare students for immediate employment or advancement in various fields. Certificate programs include:

- Addictions Studies & Human Services
- Automotive Technology
- Business
- Computer & Information Systems
- Culinary Arts
- Dental Assisting
- Early Childhood Education
- Entrepreneurship
- Forest Resources Technology
- Geographic Information Systems
- Health Information Technology
- Hospitality Management
- Manufacturing Technology
- Massage Therapy
- Medical Assistant
- Nursing
- Office Assistant
- Pharmacy Technician
- Wildland Fire Suppression

The Associate of Applied Science (AAS) degree trains students in applied career technical skills that prepare the graduate for immediate employment in the field. AAS degree programs include:

- Addictions Studies & Human Services
- Automotive Management/Technology
- Aviation
- Baking & Pastry Arts
- Business Administration
- Computer Information Systems
- Criminal Justice
- Culinary Arts
- Early Childhood Education
- Forestry Resources Technology
- Geographic Information Systems
- Health Information Technology
- Hospitality Management
- Manufacturing Technology
- Massage Therapy
- Nursing
- Paramedicine
- Structural Fire Science
- Veterinary Technician
- Wildland Fire

The Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer (AAOT) degree fits the needs of most students who intend to transfer. The AAOT degree meets lower-division general education requirements for all public Oregon universities and some private colleges. The AAOT covers subject areas from anthropology to speech, and pre-majors such as pre-medicine, pre-dentistry and pre-veterinary.

The Associate of Science (AS) degree is individualized for transfer to a designated four-year college or university for a specified major, such as business, science, engineering or technology.

The Associate of General Studies (AGS) degree provides an alternative to pursue a broad, general education and accomplish personal educational goals. It is not transferable as a whole, and does not meet certification requirements for any career and technical area.

Adult Basic Skills

Through Adult Basic Skills, students can study to improve skills that will lead them to college credit programs, the GED exam and work. Basic reading, writing and math classes are offered in Bend, Redmond, Prineville, Madras, Warm Springs and Deer Ridge Correctional Institute. English Language Learning (ELL) classes are offered in Bend, Redmond and Madras.

Through the ABS programs last year, a total of 712 students were served.

The ABS office is located at the Bend Campus. For information, call 541.504.2950.

High School Options

Central Oregon high school students can earn college credit by participating in any of these COCC programs:

Concurrent Enrollment

To register for classes on the COCC campus, follow the "Getting Started" steps at cocc.edu/future-students.

Dual Credit/College Now

Some Central Oregon high schools offer college-level general education as well as career and technical education classes in the high schools, taught by high school instructors exclusively for high school students. Tuition rates are $25/credit. Contact your high school counselor for information.

Expanded Options

High school juniors and seniors have the opportunity to take credit classes at COCC with no charge to them for tuition, fees, supplies and books (transportation to and from COCC not included). Check with your high school counselor or ASPIRE coordinator for more information on eligibility requirements.

Postgraduate Scholar Program

Available at some Central Oregon high schools, this program allows students who have completed their school's graduation requirements for a standard diploma to take college classes at a COCC campus. Full tuition, fees and books are paid by the high school. The process for purchasing books varies by school district. Contact your high school counselor to determine eligibility and to find out complete program details.

Student Services

CAP Services (Career services, Academic advising, Personal counseling and Placement)

CAP Services provides assistance to COCC students to help them achieve their educational goals and to prepare graduates for employment.

Info: 541.383.7200

Career Services

COCC offers students the following free career services: assistance for exploratory students in choosing their academic goals; support for students who are looking for employment while they attend COCC including job-posting website; one-on-one appointments with the Career Services Coordinator; and services to support students who are approaching graduation to conduct a professional job search. Free career-planning and job search workshops are available as well as credit courses in career planning and effective job search strategies.

Academic Advising

Degree-seeking students are assigned an academic advisor during their first term at COCC. Students meet regularly with their advisor to develop an academic plan and discuss degree requirements, transfer options and career preparation.

Personal Counseling

COCC provides counseling services to students who are faced with personal issues. Services are provided by professional, licensed counselors in a confidential setting at no cost to enrolled students.

Placement

All COCC students taking credit classes must provide writing and math placement information before they can register for classes. COCC offers a variety of ways to meet this placement test requirement. For more information, visit cocc.edu and search “placement” or call 541.383.7200.

Tutoring and Testing Center

Tutoring services are free to COCC students for their COCC courses. Tutoring: 541.383.7534, Testing: 541.383.7539.

- Tutors available in 26 subjects
- Variety of subjects available on four campuses
- Peer-Assisted Study Sessions (PASS) offered in Sciences
- Writing Center supports all campuses
- Online tutoring available via Western eTutoring Consortium Testing Center services
- Makeup and accommodated testing (all campuses)
- Regional Testing Centers offer high-stakes certifications/standardized exams (Bend and Redmond)
- GED testing available on the Bend and Redmond campuses

For more information, visit cocc.edu and search “tutoring or testing.”

Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD)

COCC strives to make available, to all students, the opportunity for an excellent and rewarding education. The Services for Students with Disabilities office endeavors to ensure equal access to all students with qualifying, documented disabilities at all COCC campuses. Awareness of students' needs and goals, and fostering an inclusive environment, helps create an atmosphere in which learning and growth can occur. We also encourage referral of students by staff and faculty to the SSD office for consultation and determination of eligibility for accommodations. Please contact the SSD office in the Barber Library (lower level) at 541.383.7583 or cocc.edu/departments/disability-services.

Transportation

Free campus shuttle service circles the Bend campus three times per hour. Maps and shuttle schedules are available at the Information Office, the COCC mobile app, or online. Go to cocc.edu and search "shuttle." Cascades East Transit (CET) includes two bus stops at COCC: the Barber Library and the Boyle Education Center.

Continuing Education

Small Business Development, Professional Development, Personal Enrichment and Youth Programs

Central Oregon Community College's Continuing Education division provides skill-specific noncredit programs and services throughout the District. With a composite of services, COCC is able to efficiently offer expanded opportunities for noncredit instruction appropriate to businesses, professionals and individuals.

Small Business Development Center

COCC's Small Business Development Center (SBDC) supports business vitality through no-cost, one-on-one, confidential business counseling, a yearlong Small Business Management program and practical, hands-on workshops. The SBDC continues to exceed goals in providing these business support services throughout the College District. Small Business Development Center services are available to anyone who owns or operates — or is considering starting — a small business. The businesses comprise a complete spectrum of business stages, from start-up to mature companies. For information, call 541.383.7290.

Professional Development

Central Oregon Community College offers an array of professional education courses for those who want to stay competitive in their careers, study for industry certifications, meet continuing education requirements or pursue entry-level career training. COCC also creates, coordinates and delivers customized employee training to public and private sector businesses. The training is high-quality, cost-effective and results-oriented. COCC works with businesses on computer skills, supervisory and leadership training, Spanish in the workplace and other training designed to fit specific industry needs.

Personal Enrichment

Explore the possibilities with hundreds of noncredit classes. Lifelong learning is based on the belief that people are learners at every age and are entitled to pursue educational opportunities meaningful to them.

COCC offers a multitude of noncredit personal enrichment classes for ages 16 and older. Students may develop skills and new interests through enrichment classes such as photography and cooking, get into shape with yoga and other wellness classes, or brush up on business computer skills, explore retirement options and more.

Youth Programs

Continuing Education offers Youth Camp@COCC for ages 10-14 in the summer, as well as select educational opportunities for students under age 16 throughout the year. These are a great way to have fun, develop new skills, explore career options and experience a college campus.

For more information about Continuing Education, call 541.383.7270 or visit online, cocc.edu/continuinged.

COCC Foundation

The COCC Foundation is a separate, nonprofit organization founded in 1955 to assist the College, its students and faculty through the development of private resources.

The Foundation provides this assistance by managing a variety of funding vehicles:

- Endowed scholarship funds
- Planned giving through the Heritage Society
- Annual funds through private and public partnerships

In 2018–19, the Central Oregon Community College Foundation offered more than $1.6 million in scholarships and program funds. A full scholarship in 2018–19 was $4,000. Out of the 575 qualified, first-time Foundation scholarship applicants, 225 students were awarded scholarships. In addition, 145 students received renewal scholarships.
